DESPERATE DAN

COW PIE NIGHT

Following the success of our Harry Potter Night and Orient Express Evening, we will be staging a spectacular Desperate Dan Cow Pie Night on Wednesday 29th Feb. And, what with this being a leap year an'all, it will most certainly see a feast served-up fit to win over any man's heart!

Three amazing courses will be presented on platters on individually themed tables and there will be a great quiz with cartoon and comic rounds, as well as general knowledge and lots of prizes to be won, in between each course.

Places are limited and booking is essential.
Priced at just £40 per couple, it looks set to sell out quickly!
